

E-BULLETIN SUBMISSION POLICY

The VetPartners e-Bulletin is a member benefit and is available at www.vetpartners.org. VetPartners retains complete discretion in determining the eligibility of any submissions of materials from members, sponsors and all third parties for inclusion in a VetPartners e-Bulletin.

Subject to the foregoing, the Board of Directors has agreed that the following types of submissions are generally acceptable, subject to review and approval by an officer of VetPartners:

- Submissions by Members: Announcements from members relating books authored by a member, awards received by a member, the new job of a member, upcoming speaking engagements, workshops and webinars by a member, joint ventures between a member and an enterprise not affiliated with the member, and articles authored by a member on topics of general interest
- Submissions by Sponsors: Announcements from sponsors regarding product and service offerings and other matters that would be useful and of interest to our members
- Submissions by Other Associations, Veterinary Conferences and Veterinary Schools: Announcements made by not-for-profit national and state veterinary associations (AAHA, AVMA, VHMA, etc.) and veterinary educational conferences (such as NAVC, WVC, CVC, etc.) and veterinary schools, regarding information about specific initiatives, activities, continuing education programs, service formats, research projects, industry data, etc., which would be useful and of interest to our members

VetPartners may also include information that it determines would be useful and of interest to our members, including without limitation, general association news, announcements relating to new members, and activities and programs to be provided by VetPartners.

The VetPartners Board of Directors approved this Submission Policy on August 26, 2015 and this Submission Policy supersedes all prior e-Bulletin submission policies.
